

Latitude Festival

GREEN MAN FESTIVAL
Thurs 20th - Sun 23rd August £159
www.skiddle.com/festivals/green-man

Located in the gorgeous Brecon Beacons, Green Man's incredibly friendly reputation precedes it, as does its dedication to discovering exciting new musical talent. With 1500 performers embroiled in 24 hour entertainment, taking in comedy, poetry, literature, art and science, Green Man is rightly one of the best loved boutique festivals on the calendar.

LEESTOCK
Sat 23rd - Sun 24th May £30
www.skiddle.com/festivals/leestock

The not for profit, charity based festival has so far raised a staggering total of £40,000 for the Willow Foundation, whilst the festival itself has found its way into the hearts of many with its notoriously chilled, feel good atmosphere, and regular selection of popular rock and indie bands.

GOTTWOOD FESTIVAL
Thurs 11th - Sun 14th June £75 - £95
www.skiddle.com/festivals/gottwood

Set deep in the Anglesey Forest, Gottwood is something of a breath of fresh air on the festival circuit. Aiming to give power back to the people whilst at the same time hook in a stellar cast of underground dance music heroes, the Welsh Festival delivers a safe, spontaneous and unique experience. Expect a genre bending, mind altering, rollercoaster ride that demands repeat visits.

LATITUDE
Thu 6th - Sun 19th July £132.40 - £192.50
www.skiddle.com/festivals/latitude-festival

One of the biggest boutique festivals on the circuit, Latitude goes all out on its comedy, poetry, theatre, cabaret and politics programming, topping it all off with top notch music, colourful sheep, and an unmatchable atmosphere.

NORTHBOUND FESTIVAL
Fri 7th - Sun 9th Aug
£50
www.skiddle.com/festivals/northbound-festival

The small but perfectly formed Cumbrian festival isn't just about the music, it's about the whole festival experience and the true ethos behind music festivals; finding new music, having new experiences and spending time with friends in a place where anything goes.

Festival Number 6

BOUTIQUE & GRASSROOTS FESTIVALS

Offering an eclectic experience free from the stresses of bigger festivals, grassroots and boutique festivals don't just concentrate on music but offer vast attractions taking in the arts, workshops, comedy and theatre, leading to a well rounded weekend of easygoing, exciting programming that leaves you wanting more.

FESTIVAL NUMBER 6
Thu 3rd - Sun 6th September £170 - £185
www.skiddle.com/festivals/festival-no-6

Perhaps the most unique festival on the calendar, Festival Number 6 is located in Portmeirion, a Mediterranean inspired coastal village complete with palm trees, beaches, mountains and forests. With a huge line up of artists, musicians, DJs, poets, public speakers and more, the Welsh festival is perfect for those looking to soak up a hefty amount of cultural offerings during their festival experience.

THE BIG FEASTIVAL
Fri 28th - Sun 30th August
£50 - £130
www.skiddle.com/festivals/the-big-festival

Blur's Alex James teams up with Jamie Oliver for a shindig on the former's farm, where Paloma Faith, Grandmaster Flash and Groove Armada DJing provide the musical counterpoint to a celebration of food in this family friendly delight.

UNDERNEATH THE STARS
Fri 24th - Sun 26th July £95 - £125
www.skiddle.com/festivals/underneath-the-stars

As a brand new celebration of arts, music and food, Kate Rusby's debut festival will bring a searing selection of jazz, blues, swing, folk and rock & roll to Cannon Hall Open Farm, South Yorkshire this summer.

FARMFESTIVAL
Fri 31st July - Sat 1st August £59
www.skiddle.com/festivals/farmfestival

Relaxed, calm and serene, Farmfestival's uber chilled atmosphere is a huge part of its charm, whilst its eclectic programme of dance, rock, electronic, folk and reggae caters for even the most obscure of musical persuasions.
